

Kindergarten Year Plan 2023/24

	ELA	Math	Science	Social Studies
Ongoing	Read alouds, shared reading, Writer's workshop, guided reading, alphabet studies, play-based learning centres, songs, Handwriting without tears, Heggerty Phonic awareness	Math outcomes are introduced and explored using math manipulatives. The 3 math strands (number, patterns and relations, shape and space) will be explored sequentially to build upon prior knowledge and will be revisited throughout the year.	Science outcomes will be incorporated into themes and integrated into other subject areas.	Social Studies outcomes will be incorporated into themes and integrated into other subject areas.
September	Themes: Back to school, Fall/Apples, Terry Fox -printing names -letter/sound association -poems	Number concepts -rote counting -subitize 0-6 -recognize numerals to 10 -1-1 correspondence -matches sets & numerals -forms recognizable numbers	Cluster 1: Trees -apples/leaves -seasons -parts of the tree	Cluster 1: All About Me -school rules/laws -family -friends -safety -traditions
October	Themes: Halloween, Thanksgiving	Patterns & Relations -8 basic colours -reproduce, continue and create patterns -identifies, sorts & classifies objects
November	Themes: Remembrance Day, Journals	Shape and Space -identifies basic 2D/3D shapes -understands/uses words that describe position	Cluster 2: Colours -identify 11 colours -colour vocabulary; primary, secondary, mix, light and dark
December	Themes: Christmas	Revisit explored concepts
January	Themes: Winter	Number concepts: -role counting -skip counting Numeral recognition		Cluster 2: The People Around Me -school community -community, -family -community jobs
February	Themes: I love to read, 100 th Day, Valentine's Day, Groundhog Day	Number concepts Addition and subtraction	Cluster 3: Paper -identify types of paper -observe & compare characteristics of paper

March	Themes: St. Patrick's Day, Fairy Tales	Patterns & Relations -graphing
April	Themes: Spring, Easter	Continue to build upon math skills		Cluster 3: The World Around Me -Landmarks -Canada -globes and maps -basic needs around World
May	Themes: Trees, plants, and insects	Continue to build upon math concepts previously learned
June	Themes: Summer	Revisit explored concepts		